- Fees

The 56th Family Medicine Review provides five days of outstanding continuing medical education on recent developments in patient management for Primary Care Physicians, Physician Assistants, Advanced Practice Nurses and Residents. The Family Medicine Review is presented by expert faculty members of the University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine in a format of morning lectures and afternoons of interactive workshops. The purpose of the Family Medicine Review is to improve knowledge, skills, competency, performance and patient outcomes.

Accreditation

The University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

UC DENVER SOM - The University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine designates this educational activity for a maximum of 32.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

AAFP – Application for CME credit has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians. Determination of credit is pending.

AOA – American Osteopathic Association credit may be claimed up to 32.5 Category 2A hours.

AAPA accepts certificates of participation for educational activities certified for Category I credit from AOACCME, Prescribed credit from AAFP, and AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ from organizations accredited by ACCME or a recognized state medical society. Physician assistants may receive a maximum of 32.5 hours of Category I credit for completing this program.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of the conference, learners should be able to:

1. Implement Evidence-based Prevention Recommendations in practice.
2. Know which patients should have annual screening for Chlamydia trachomatis.
3. Implement an initial treatment regime for newly diagnosed Hypertension
4. Develop a plan of care that identifies services to be provided for a patient newly diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease.
5. In an adolescent athlete, know how to evaluate and manage his/her concussion.

Proposed Performance Measures

- % of adult patients with cognitive impairment or dementia who have had serum B12 and TSH levels measured (based on the 2001 American Academy of Neurology Practice Parameter on Diagnosis of Dementia)
- % of sexually active females in your practice, aged less than or equal to 25, with annual screening for Chlamydia trachomatis (based upon CDC, 2006 STD Guidelines)
- % of females 13 through 26 years old who are counseled about the HPV vaccine to prevent cervical cancer (based upon Advisory Committee in Immunization Practices, 2006)
- % of persons with a 10 year hip fracture probability greater than or equal to 3% or absolute risk for any major osteoporotic fracture greater than or equal to 20% who initiate treatment. (National Osteoporosis Foundation)

Workshops

The Family Medicine Review consists of lectures and workshops. Learners will have the opportunity to select from 15 different interactive 1.5 hour workshops during the week. Workshops are listed on the course schedule and available on a first come, first served basis.

Course Syllabus

A comprehensive course syllabus containing outlines and key concepts of the presentations will be provided to each registrant.

Other Estes Park Lodging can be found through the Estes Park Chamber of Commerce – 800-378-3708 or www.estesparkresort.com.

Meals

The full American Plan – all meals included – is part of your reservation at the YMCA of the Rockies. Arrange sack lunches the day before at the FMR registration desk.

The Family Medicine Review Course will provide a Continental Breakfast during Registration on Monday June 22, 2009. Breaks will include beverages and snacks. No other food is provided during the FMR course.

Activities

The YMCA of the Rockies, situated just outside Rocky Mountain National Park, is a spectacular mountain setting and the surrounding area provides an abundance of outdoor activities – from hiking and horseback riding to fly fishing and mountain biking. Golf and other diversions are available in the area. Please refer to the YMCA website at www.ymcarockies.org or the Estes Park Chamber at www.estesparkresort.com. Book early – it is a very popular destination.

Western Cookout

Don't miss this Family Medicine Review tradition held Monday evening June 22 at 5:15 pm at the YMCA Grounds Upper Cookout Pavilion. Entertainment by the popular musical group - Dakota Blonde - along with dinner makes for a fun 'kick off' to your week in the mountains. The cookout is part of the meal plan for those staying at the YMCA. Please present your meal tickets.
