General Information

Neurosurgery in the Rockies is an intimate gathering hosted by the Department of Neurosurgery at the University of Colorado School of Medicine in collaboration with Mount Sinai School of Medicine in New York. Our goal is to provide an environment in which neurosurgeons can exchange ideas, meet new friends and enjoy the natural beauty of the Rocky Mountains.

This conference is designed for neurosurgeons, neurologists, interventional neuroradiologists, resident physicians and all individuals with an interest in the clinical neurosciences.

The University of Colorado faculty and guest speakers will address controversial topics in Neurosurgery that will be presented in a point/counterpoint format by our resident staff in the morning sessions. The afternoon sessions will consist of clinical and basic science papers presented by the participants. Our honored guest will provide perspective on these issues.
