

International Diabetes Epidemiology Group training course

Wednesday 29th November 2006

VENUE: Protea Hotel, Stellenbosch, South Africa

One day workshop and tutorials during the 10th Symposium of the International Diabetes Epidemiology Group:

PROGRAM

Wednesday 29th November

Afternoon Registration
7:30 Opening dinner

Thursday 30th November

8.30 Introduction: Definition and purpose of epidemiological studies
Peter Bennett - Phoenix, USA

9.00 Descriptive epidemiology of diabetes
Principles of incidence and prevalence. Variation in time, place and person
Peter Bennett - Phoenix, USA

9.30 Descriptive epidemiology of type 1 diabetes
Jaakko Tuomilehto - Helsinki, Finland

10.00 Descriptive epidemiology of type 2 diabetes
Jean-Claude Mbanya - Yaounde, Cameroon

10.30 Coffee

11.00 Introduction to analytical epidemiology: Definitions and relative merits of case-controlled approaches
Maria-Ines Schmidt - Port Alegre, Brazil

11.45 Obesity and abdominal adiposity as risk factors for diabetes and cardiovascular disease
Beverley Balkau - Paris, France

12.30 Lunch

14.00 Measuring lifestyle factors in epidemiological studies
Eugene Sobngwi - Yaunde, Cameroon

14.45 Prevention trials in diabetes
Mike Engelgau - Atlanta, USA

15.30 Tea

16.00 Screening: introduction to concepts and application to diabetes
Nick Wareham - Cambridge

16:30 Searching the literature on DM
Bruce Duncan - Port Alegre, Brazil

17.00-18:00 Meet the Professors Session